Marriott Ghent

Situated on the Korenlei on the banks of the Lys, the Ghent Marriott offers a magnificent panorama of the famous historical sites of the city and brings modern design to charming location. It is only a several minutes walk from Ghent's shopping district and university.

Ghent Marriott combines all the elements needed to charm all kind of visitors. 150 luxury bedrooms and suites, 450sqm state-of-the-art conference rooms with special touches are offered that make a 'feel like home from home'. The glass dome with the vast bar lounge POPPI serves as a privilege passage between the hotel and the city centre, and is also a place of relaxation.

Restaurant KORENHUIS evokes the atmosphere of a classic merchant's house, modernised with the taste, design and expectations of today's global culture. An underground car park is also available, something rarely found in European City centers. Ghent Marriott blends historic treasures harmoniously with the latest fashions and trends – just like the city.
